i can't believe it's sept. already! aaah! 1 yr closer 2 graduation.

y r u thinking about graduation on the first day of school?

it'll be here fstr than u think so i've been going 2 vsac.org 2 see what i might want 2 do aftr hi school.

i thought vsac was just 4 college funding. how r they helping u now?

with info on careers, majors, colleges, how 2 get there... stuff like that. CIO @ vsac.org!

Education or training beyond high school opens doors to more choices in life, varied and fulfilling career opportunities, and better earning potential. Regardless of your grade in high school, it's never too early to plan your next steps. At the Vermont Student Assistance Corporation (VSAC), we've been helping Vermont families plan and pay for college since 1965. With our exciting career and college planning tools — and grants, scholarships, and low-cost loans that you can use to attend schools or programs within or outside Vermont — we make it possible to pursue your dreams.

Give yourself a head start by getting started now.
